

In the Beginning was The Vision

*And then came the Assumptions
But the Assumptions were without Form
And the Vision was without substance.*

*And Darkness was upon the faces of the Workers
As they Spoke amongst themselves, saying:
"It is a Crock of Shit, and it Stinketh, badly."*

*So the Workers went to Supervisors and sayeth unto them:
"It is a Pail of Dung, and none may abide the Odor thereof."*

*And Supervisors went to Managers, and sayeth unto them:
"It is a Container of Excrement, and it is so very Strong that none may abide it."*

*And Managers went to Directors and sayeth unto them:
"It is a vessel of Fertilizer, and none may abide its Strength."*

*And Directors went to Vice Presidents and sayeth:
"It contains that which aids plant Growth, and it is very Strong."*

*And Vice Presidents went to Executives and sayeth unto them:
"It promoteth Growth, and it is very very Powerful."*

*And Executives went to the President, and sayeth unto him:
"This powerful Vision will actively promote Growth and Efficiency of our departments and our company overall."*

And the President looked upon the Vision and saw that it was good.

Thus the Vision became The Reality.
